TICKETS & INFORMATION

There are two kinds of shows and events at the Gathering: ticketed and non-ticketed.

TICKETED SHOWS

Ticketed performances showcase special themes and combinations of Western musicians and cowboy poets. These shows require purchase of individual tickets and are listed in the schedule grid, designated with a ticket price and color-coded in gold.

DAYTIME NON-TICKETED SHOWS AND EVENTS

Non-ticketed shows and events take place during the day Thursday through Saturday, January 30–February 1, only. These require the purchase of a 3-Day Deluxe Pass ($80) or a Single Day Pass ($30). There are over 100 non-ticketed shows and events during the three main days of the Gathering. They are blue in the schedule grid.

TICKET PURCHASE OPTIONS

All passes and tickets can be purchased at the ticket office in the lobby of the Elko Convention Center. Passes may also be purchased in the Gift Shop at the Western Folklife Center. Tickets can be purchased online at nationalcowboypoetrygathering.org up to two hours prior to the performance and picked up at the ticket office. Tickets to performances in the G Three Bar Theater can be purchased in the Western Folklife Center lobby one half hour before the show (subject to availability).

A FEW SIMPLE RULES DURING PERFORMANCES

- » Turn off all cell phones.
- » No flash photography.
- » No video unless approved in advance by Western Folklife Center staff. This includes cell-phone video.
- » Enter and exit performance rooms during applause only.

ACCESSIBILITY

Assisted-listening devices are available in the Elko Convention Center Auditorium and the G Three Bar Theater at the Western Folklife Center. Volunteers will be available to assist wheelchair users and to guide visitors with disabilities. If you need assistance, please call (775) 738-7508 to prearrange these services. Wheelchair seating is limited—get your tickets early. Our shuttle vans are unfortunately not equipped with lifts.
